Sponsor Information

In addition to the parents, each child to be baptized must have a sponsor. It is customary to have two sponsors, one a woman and one a man. Baptismal sponsors are often called godparents and must meet the following qualifications:

- Be at least 16 years old
- Be fully initiated Catholic (received into Baptism, Holy Eucharist and Confirmation)
- Be an actively practicing Catholic who participates in the Sacramental life of the Church and whose faith and moral life will be an example to inspire the child. (This also requires that a sponsor who is married or living as if married have a marriage recognized by the Catholic Church.)

Parents' Agreement

In requesting Baptism for my child, I make a binding commitment "to train my child in the practice of the faith," and "to bring the child up to keep God's commandments as Christ taught us, by loving God and our neighbor." In this commitment I freely choose to live the faith myself. I will live out my faith encountering Christ, sharing in the life of the Church including by participating in Sunday Mass, and sent in mission by the Holy Spirit to share the Father's love in our world.
